Mickey Batsell is an experienced financial services professional, specializing in long-term care, retirement planning and surrounding issues including Medicare, Medicaid, home healthcare, nursing home care, wealth transfer, and the selection of long-term care facilities. With over 40 years of professional, and more importantly, personal family experiences, Mickey has an in-depth understanding of the challenges his clients face. As a protector of people's independence and dignity, he currently represents industry-leading, financially sound companies and assists families, groups, and associations throughout the United States.

Mickey has a bachelor's degree in Marketing and an MBA in Accounting. He is a Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU), a Chartered Advisor for Senior Living (CASL), a Fellow of Life Management Institute (FLMI), Certified in Long Term Care (CLTC), and a Certified Senior Advisor (CSA), Mickey takes an active role in his industry, community and church. He served on the national boards of director for the American Association for Long-Term Care Insurance (AALTCI), Society of Financial Services Professionals (SFSP) and the National Insurance Executives (NIME). He is a member of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA) and the past President of the National Insurance Marketing Executives (NIME), has served as chairman of the Society of Certified Senior Advisors Certification Council, and is currently an instructor for the Certified Senior Advisor Certification Review Class and the Certified in Long Term Care advanced class.

Mickey graduated from Texas A & M in 1967. He was a proud member of Squadron 11 and served as Executive Officer his senior year. He was a member of the Fish Drill Team, The Aggie Gymnastics Team and the Intercollegiate Marketing Team. He has continued his involvement with Texas A&M by serving as co-class agent for over 48 years and on several committees and task forces for the Association of Former Students. He is a former member of the Board of Directors for the 12th Man Foundation and past president of the Coppel A&M Club. Mickey has delivered Aggie Muster addresses at countless A&M clubs. He is a retired USAFR Lt. Colonel, served in the USAF Special Operations on active duty and as a Deputy Commander of Resources in the USAFR.

Mickey and Nancy have been married for 53 years and have four married children, eleven grandchildren, and six great grandchildren. Among them all there are eleven Aggie Rings. If he isn't with family, you can find him on the golf course. He is a retired Texas High School football official. He has officiated six state championship games and the 2013 and 2015 East/West High School All American Bowls at Reliant Stadium and the Citrus Bowl.
